The above table and line graphs are provided to show the frequency at which the closing price of the Fund was at a premium (above) or discount (below) as compared to the Fund's daily net asset value ("NAV").

Content herein provides premium/discount data for the recently completed calendar year and the most recently completed calendar quarters since that year (or the life of the exchange-traded fund, if shorter).

Premium/discounts are as of the end of each business day. Rounding is to the hundredth decimal point. Days traded at 0.00% difference from NAV are considered at neither a premium nor discount.
